

1
2
3
4 DAVID ZHU,
5 Plaintiff,
6 v.
7 HUGO POWER SUPPLY LLC, et al.,
8 Defendants.
9

10 Case No. 15-cv-04545-JST
11

12 ORDER GRANTING STIPULATION IN 13 PART AND DENYING IT IN PART

14 Re: Dkt. No. 22
15

16 On October 9, 2015, Defendants William Howe and Hugo Power Supply, LLC filed a 17 motion to dismiss this action for lack of personal jurisdiction and improper venue or, in the 18 alternative, to transfer the action to the District of South Carolina. ECF No. 12. Plaintiff opposed the motion, ECF No. 13, and Defendants filed a reply brief, ECF No. 14. The Court subsequently ordered supplemental briefing, which the parties filed, ECF Nos. 16, 17, and continued the hearing on Defendants' motion from November 19, 2015 to January 7, 2016. ECF No. 15.

19 On December 21, 2015, the parties filed a stipulation, asking the Court to (1) transfer the 20 action to the United States District Court of South Carolina, Charleston Division; (2) refer the case
21 to arbitration, such arbitration to be completed within 120 days of transfer to South Carolina;
22 (3) order the parties mutually to agree upon an arbitrator, and permit the parties to move the 23 federal court in South Carolina to appoint one if the parties cannot agree; (4) effectuate certain 24 other agreements between the parties. ECF No. 22.

25 The Court now GRANTS that part of the parties' stipulation that transfers the case to the 26 Charleston Division of the District of South Carolina.<sup>1</sup> That request is supported by the forum
27

28

---

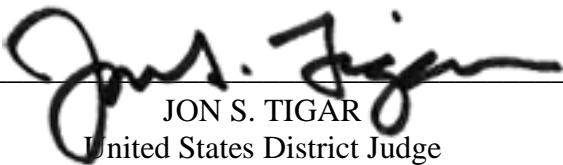

<sup>1</sup> It appears that transfer to the Charleston Division satisfies the requirements of the District of South Carolina's local venue rule, which makes proper any division "[w]here any natural

1 selection clause in the parties' contract, as well as by their stipulation. The Court will DENY the
2 balance of the parties' requests without prejudice. Some of the parties' remaining requests do not
3 require judicial approval, and the rest are more properly directed at the South Carolina judge who
4 will manage this case going forward.

5 The Clerk is directed to terminate the motion at Docket Number 12. The hearing
6 scheduled for January 7, 2016 is VACATED.

7 IT IS SO ORDERED.

8 Dated: December 29, 2015

9
10 JON S. TIGAR
United States District Judge

11
12 United States District Court
13 Northern District of California
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26

---

27 defendant resides, where a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim
28 occurred, or where any corporate/other organization defendant does business relating to the events or omissions alleged." D.S.C. Civ. L.R. 3.01(A)(1).